

Preliminary Program of the Government Phonology Round Table (GPRT) 2015
1-3 May in Vienna

Presentations should not exceed 30 minutes, so that we have at least 10 min. for discussion.
They can be shorter if authors prefer, then we gain time at the end of the program.

Saturday, 2 May 2015 in Hörsaal 1, 1st floor, Sensengasse 3a, 1090 Wien

9:00 –9:40 Jonathan Kaye & Markus Pöchtrager
“All that glitters is not gold: The problem of phonological self-deception”

9:40 –10:20 Katalin Bérces
“The Fabulous Destiny of Certain Consonant Clusters in English”
break

10:35–11:15 Milica Denić
“A GP account of movement epenthesis in LIS”

11:15–11:55 Radwa Fathi & Jean Lowenstamm
“The Gender Assignment Pattern of French Nouns”
break

12:10–12:50 Jonathan Kaye
“Advice to young phonologists”

12:50–13:30 Dániel Neugebauer
“Let's kill the coda again!: Assimilation and complex onsets in GP 2.0” lunch

14:30–15:10 Markus Pöchtrager
“Loutish Umlaut”

15:10–15:50 Krisztina Polgárdi
“Darkening and vocalisation of /l/ in General British English”

15:50–16:30 Péter Szigetvári
“British English Vowels: Fewer than you would think”
break

16:45–17:25 Sławomir Zdziebko
“A theory of morpho-phonological consonant mutation”

17:25–18:05 Nancy C. Kula
“Can GP count? On ternary spreading domains”
break

18:20–19:00 Friedrich Neubarth
“Polarity and the Phonological Representation of Sounds”

19:00–19:40 John Rennison
“Elements and assimilation”
drinks on the 6th floor, then dinner

Wifi: Network=eduroam ID=kayej15 Password=gprt2015